

LA Final Project

412242266 黃宇濬

(a)(b)

(c)

After comparing the signals I plotted, I observed that the moving average filter makes the signal smoother than the original. In particular, using a larger window size results in a smoother output, as more neighboring points are averaged together.